KY. BUGGY & HARNESS WORKS.

It Does Seem Possible.

Senator William Lindsay, of Kentucky, whom I met at the Fifth-avenue Hotel the other day, says a writer in the New York Press, reminds me very forcibly of Millard Fillmore as the famous old New York Whig looked on the day of his inauguration in 1850. The successor of John G. Carlisle in the Senate is just sixty years of age, but appears younger, he is so well preserved. His smooth face is of the type remembered in most of the old-line Whigs, for it was not the fashion in their day to wear a beard. A story has been going the rounds of the capital for some time which Vice President Stevenson declares was first told on Senator Lindsay. In 1871, when the papers of the whole country were full of exposures of the Tweed ring, one of the leading preachers in Frankfort, Ky., a man of pure heart and trusting disposition, a man without guile, said to the then Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals:

"Judge Lindsay, it surely is not possible that these terrible charges against Tweed and his party are true? Are they not all Democrats?"

"My very reverend friend," said the Judge, "I fear you are too good a man to live in this world. I once was young, but now am old, I once was a Whig, but now am a Democrat, and I grieve to say that from long observation I have become convinced that it is within the range of possibility for a Democrat to steal."

Lot Sold.

In order to increase the frontage of his property on South Shelby street, Mr. William Cromwell has purchased from Judge W. H. Sneed a strip of ground adjoining his place, fronting thirty-five feet on Shelby street and running back four hundred feet, paying therefor two hundred and fifty dollars.

More Distilleries Starting.

The first mash of the season was made at the O. F. C. Distillery on Monday and the Hermitage and Old Crow Distilleries will also commence operations next Monday. All the distilleries in the county, except the Old Judge, will then be in full blast.

The German Hop.

The German Benevolent Society will give their hop on Monday evening next at Weitzel's Hall. If you have not already secured a ticket do not forget to do so.

Mr. Burbon Pulliam and Miss Lottie Rodgers, both of this county, were married at the home of the bride's parents Thursday, Rev. J. D. Reed officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple started for a bridal tour North.

Miss Lula Rodgers, of Saffell, has gone to Carter county to spend the summer with her brother, Thomas Rodgers.

I think there is some sign of change in the weather for there are so many women on the pad.

Prof. W. M. Wiley, of Harmony, Owen county, has opened his spring school, with thirty-five pupils. He has some seven or eight pupils which are preparing to teach this fall. Prof. Wiley is a good teacher and promising young man and has made many friends since he has been teaching in this county. We wish him success.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT,
LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 5,351 hhds., with receipts for the same period of 3,073 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 56,222 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1894 on our market to this date amount to 59,920 hhds. The sales have been very heavy on our market again this week and we have had a very firm and active market throughout the week. The good to fine grades of burley continue to command very high figures, but these grades continue to represent only a very small per cent. of the total offerings.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco 1894 crop:

Trash (dark) or damaged
tobacco	$1 50 @ $2 75
Common Colory trash	3 00 @ 3 75
Medium to good colory trash	3 75 @ 5 50
Common lugs not colory	2 50 @ 4 00
Common Colory lugs	4 00 @ 5 50
Medium to good colory lugs	5 50 @ 8 50
Common to medium leaf	6 00 @ 10 00
Medium to good leaf	10 00 @ 15 00
Good to fine leaf	15 00 @ 18 00
Select or wrappery	18 00 @ 22 50

Poor Indeed!

The prospect of relief from drastic cathartics for persons troubled with constipation is poor indeed. True they act upon the bowels, but this they do with violence, and their operation tends to weaken the intestines, and is prejudicial to the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an effective laxative, but it neither grips nor enfeebles. Furthermore, it promotes digestion and a regular action of the liver and the kidneys. It is an efficient barrier against and remedy for malarial complaints and rheumatism, and is of great benefit to the weak, nervous and aged. As a medicinal stimulant it cannot be surpassed. Physicians cordially recommend it, and its professional endorsement is fully borne out by popular experience. Appetite and sleep are both improved by this agreeable invigorant and alterative.
